

The 1st International Youth Workshop
MAGNITOGORSK
ROLLING

PRACTICE
2015

NOSOV MAGNITOGORSK
STATE TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY

15-20 JUNE 2015

OBJECTIVES

The Magnitogorsk Rolling Practice is a unique opportunity for bachelors, masters, PhD students and young scientists to learn in practice about a complete process flow of a modern high-technology iron and steel company, starting from iron and steel making and finishing with steel rolling, drawing and downstream processing. A special attention will be given to metal forming processes. You can also listen to lectures delivered by leading scientists in this area.

Magnitogorsk is a capital of the Russian ferrous metallurgy. It is interesting to know that it is located at the boundary between Europe and Asia. Thousands of citizens cross this boundary several times a day.

Nosov Magnitogorsk State Technical University (NMSTU) was founded in 1934. Today NMSTU offers about 59 Bachelor's Degree, 32 Master's Degree, 20 Specialist's Degree and 46 Postgraduate Degree educational programs. Over 25,000 students attend the University, including more than 350 foreign students. The teaching staff includes over 830 Doctors of Philosophy (PhD) and Doctors of Science (D.Sc.). Important scientific research scholars are in the field of Metallurgy, Nanosystems and Nanomaterials, Crystal Material Processing, Power and Energy Saving, Information and Telecommunication Systems, Rational Nature Management, Transport Systems Design and Management, Environment-friendly Mining, Quality Control.

OJSC Magnitogorsk Iron and Steel Works (MMK)

MMK is one of the world's largest steel producers and a leading Russian metals company. The company's operations in Russia include a large steel producing complex encompassing the entire production chain, from preparation of iron ore to downstream processing of rolled steel. MMK offers a wide range of steel products with a predominant share of high-value-added products. In 2013 the MMK Group produced 11.9 million tons of crude steel and 11 million tons of commercial steel products.
